Computer Science

LECTURER : Dr Edouard Koba (cell phone 97619063)

Level : Bachelor's degree, first year.

COURSE DURATION : 20 hours

COURSE OBJECTIVES

At the end of this course, the learner should be able to

-Master and speak English in the professional setting

- Be conversant with the computing technical terms and use them in practical tasks

COURSE OUTLINE :

PART1 : GRAMMAR PRACTICE

Revision of major grammatical structures and speaking skills.

PART2 : COMPUTING ENGLISH

Chapter one : hardware

Chapter two : software

TEACHING METHODS

Theorical courses pratical and monitoring work (40 percent)

Student's personal research work (60 percent)

ASSESSMENT PATTERNS

Continous assessment

Summative assessment (open-ended questions, multiple choice questions)

TEACHING APPROACH

Student-centered approach : active approach

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Mark, J.(2007) computers and information technology . London : A & C black publishers ltd.

Recommended dictionnary : dictionnary of computer (A & C Black, ISBN 9780747566229)

WEBIBLIOGRAPHY www.anglaiscours.fr www.anglaisfacile.fr www.usingenglish.com

COURS D'ANGLAIS